2. All members agree to behave in an appropriate manner and will not bring the sport or those who participate in it through Swimming Northern Territory into disrepute because of their participation.
3. Team Managers are to be aware and in control of their team at all times.
4. In participating in any swimming competition, all members recognise and accept that the competition is organised by people who have the interest of competitors uppermost in their minds.
5. All members accept that their participation is voluntary, and in participating, they volunteer to accept and abide by all decisions made by organisers.
6. All members recognise that mistakes will sometimes be made, but these will be accepted and borne in the greater interest of organised, friendly competition.
7. It is accepted that any question or protest in relation to any decision or course of action will be raised in a reasonable manner, and only to the extent allowed by the rules of competition where these apply to the situation in question.
