Greatness Starts Somewhere....

Swimming Northern Territory is proud to have Andrew Materazzo, from Casuarina Swimming Club as Meet Ambassador. Good Luck Andrew – Have a Great Meet!!!

What are your favourite hobbies?

Swimming is one of my favourite hobbies and something I can't live without. Not just pool swimming though, I really enjoy adventuring and swimming at the beach and inland water features - like the waterfalls at Litchfield.

• When did you first start swimming?

I have been competitively swimming since 2012. Prior to that I was doing learn to swim and the thought of racing terrified me. Now, over 10 years later, I still do get scared, but I've realized that racing is one of the most exciting parts of swimming, so I'll keep racing for as long as I can.

• What is your favourite swimming memory?

I was selected as part of the NT team that went to Sydney for the Virtual Australian SC Champs. It was such an amazing experience competing there and I swum the best races of my career at that competition. Our team was small with only 7 people, but we had the best time together.

• What is your favourite stroke and distance?

My favourite race is the 50m freestyle. It might seem easy but it's a quick race and the precision required leaves you with no margin for error.

• What is it like swimming with the Casuarina Swim Team?

I've been with Casuarina my whole life and our team has always been as close as family – from the swimmers to even the parents and volunteers.

• What are your future goals?

My goal in swimming is to always be around and to be a part of the swimming community in Darwin. But no matter where I find myself in life, I'd love competing anywhere and meeting swimmers from all around Australia, and the world (Hopefully on an Australian team).
