REHABILITATION/RETURN TO WORK PROVISIONS

In the event of employees suffering a work-related injury every endeavour will be made to return the injured worker to the workplace through a rehabilitation process. This process will give injured workers the opportunity to stay in the workforce by returning to the job for which they were originally employed or, through retraining, to start a new job. If your treating medical practitioner indicates on the Certificate of Capacity that you have capacity a return to work on modified or alternative duties, then you will need to speak with the Executive Officer before commencing work.

If you are totally incapacitated for work for 10 days or more, a return to work plan including an offer of suitable employment will be established by the Executive Officer. In some cases this will mean that a Rehabilitation Provider will be engaged prior to the lodgement of a Workers Compensation claim. The Role of the Rehabilitation Providers is to:

- Provide rehabilitation to the injured/ill workers where required
- Liaise with the Executive Officer, the injured employee, the injured worker's manager, the treating medical practitioner and the Insurer and to assist in the development of a written rehabilitation plan.
- Injured staff have a choice of at least 3 Rehabilitation Providers where such a service is required. The choice must be made within 14 days otherwise the decision will be made by the Executive Officer.

Swimming Northern Territory will advise the Preferred Rehabilitation Provider:

The Process

1. The Executive Officer must notify the President immediately if the injury is likely to result in time loss, rehabilitation intervention or work restrictions.
2. On receiving notification of any injury or illness, the Executive Officer will make contact with the injured/ill employee where practicable. If rehabilitation is required, the Executive Officer will facilitate a rehabilitation/return to work program in conjunction with key parties.
3. The nature and type of rehabilitation will be made on the basis of:
  - a. The nature of the injury/illness;
  - b. Work restrictions;
  - c. The nature of pre-injury work; and
  - d. The availability of suitable duties.
4. If there are no suitable duties available within the job description, other duties will be assessed for suitability.
5. Agreed rehabilitation/return to work details will be specified in writing. Suitable duties will be reviewed on a regular basis until the employee returns to his/her pre-injury duties or is permanently placed in suitable employment. Reviews will be documented. Copies of all documentation will be given to the injured/ill employee, their supervisor/manager and the treating medical practitioner.
6. If the employee is assessed as being unfit for any duties, the Executive Officer and/or Swimming Northern Territory's nominated Rehabilitation Provider will maintain regular contact with the employee and the treating doctor until capacity for suitable duties is identified.
7. Any disagreement over rehabilitation/return to work plan will be negotiated by the Executive Officer, in consultation with the injured staff member.
8. Refusal to Participate in a Return to Work Program

If an employee refuses to take part in rehabilitation or training, or does not seek suitable employment, the employee benefits may stop.
